

Carter Wholesale

This building was built in 1919 and originally housed Carter Wholesale. Carter Wholesale provided groceries and building supplies to country stores all over Northeast Georgia. They were located in the building until 1964. In 1966 Fred Watson bought the building and founded Watson Tire, which has been located here since that time.

Snapshots of Toccoa's history